

Holocene Technologies Terms and Conditions of Sale

Holocene Technologies agrees to sell products to the Buyer on the following terms:

Downpayment:

- a) For Custom systems: 40% is due upon placement of order. Order processing begins when the payment is received.
- b) For Stock Systems: No down payment is required.

Balance Due:

The balance is due when the order is complete, before the product is shipped.

Shipment:

All shipments are FOB the factory. The buyer is responsible for freight and handling from the factory to the job site.

Fabrication and ship times are approximate and may be delayed due to supplier delays, or other conditions or circumstances beyond the control of Holocene Technologies.

Fitness for service:

The buyer will be responsible for determining that the product meets local code conditions. See warranty for further conditions.

Modification:

These terms and conditions cannot be modified except by agreement in writing by both parties.
